

Sextortion

What is it?

It's blackmail that happens online when someone gets a nude or sexual photo or video of you.

Who does it happen to?

90% of recent victims are male.¹

Sextortion can happen to anyone.

Other genders are targeted for inappropriate content.

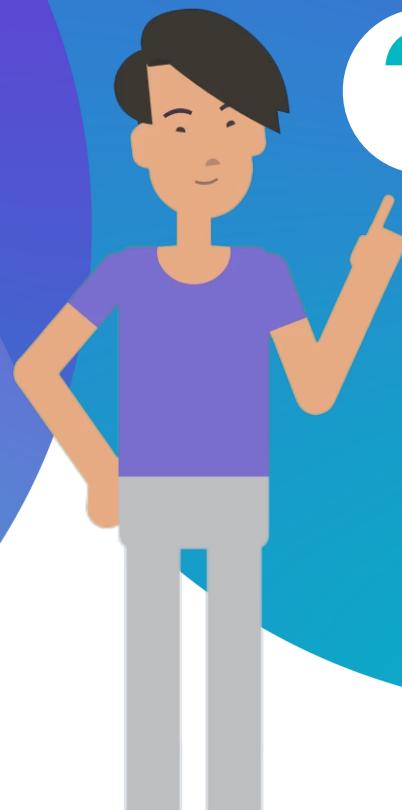

How does it happen?

A scammer pretends to be a young female and uses fake photos, videos, or AI.

A predatory adult forms an online relationship to ask for nudes or screen records a live stream.

WHAT IF IT HAPPENS TO YOU?

Stop talking to the person right away.

Save any messages or pictures they sent you.

Tell a trusted adult and report it to Cybertip or the local police.

Block them.

Q&A

1. Imagine your friend tells you they think they're being sextorted. What advice would you give them, and how could you be supportive?

2. What are warning signs that someone might be trying to sextort you?

3. How easy or hard do you think it is for someone to pretend to be someone else online?
